1. A Committee for the Re-establishment of Polish Scientific Research was set up within the Central Planning Office (Centralny Urzad Planowania) in Warsaw which serves as an advisory board to the President of the Central Planning Office. This Committee is composed of the following members:

Dr. Jan Drenowski, chairman,
Professor Roman Kozlowski,
Professor Eugen Ochlewicz,
Professor Jozef Zawadzki and Tadeusz Jablonski.

2. Among the tasks of this Committee will be the distribution of special contributions for the development of Polish research work, as set down in the plan of 31 December, 1946, namely of 100 million zloty or 1 million dollars. Out of this figure 24 million zloty are to go to the Radium Institute in Warsaw, seven million to the Polish Academy of Sciences, 30 million zloty to different universities, institutes of technology, and 37 million zloty to other scientific institutions which have not been specified.
